akhi.getfriday: is it, why do you they are surprised ?
 12:39 PM me: maybe they just dont expect you to be available
 or they think that our relationship is over
 because i am showing the work

2:55 PM akhi.getfriday: had orange juice.
what is the difference between lemon and lime ?

2:56 PM me: lemon is yellow, lime is green
limes are sweeter than lemons
lemons are sour
are there not many lemons and limes in india?
2:57 PM akhi.getfriday: Yes we do have, then what we generally use in India is Lemon.
2:58 PM I dont think limes used much here.
2:59 PM But when I checked the images it looks similar for me.

me: yes they are quite similar
i had a lemon tree in my yard in san francisco
it was there behind the place i was renting
also in berkeley
lots of lemon trees in that yard
3:01 PM akhi.getfriday: oh is it. we had lemon plant at home, I used to use its leaf as hand freshener after food. but the plant never gave fruit.
just rub the leaf on your hand, hand will smell good :)
3:02 PM me: that sounds real nice. do you have plants in bangalore, at your flat with your brother in law?
3:03 PM akhi.getfriday: no its not there, I thought of getting an aquarium for having fish and aquatic plants,
3:04 PM but the water here is Hard water.
the water in bore well is hard water.

3:05 PM me: could you get a filter that fixes the water?
3:07 PM akhi.getfriday: yes we have a filter at home for that.
3:08 PM me: you should use it!
i want fish too
i really want a dog soon
are there many dogs as pets in blore?

3:11 PM akhi.getfriday: yes many are there.
more street dogs are there.

3:12 PM me: treet monkeys too?
*street
akhi.getfriday: there are some people who feed them, I dont like people feeding street dogs, if they really care about that dogs they need to put them in shelter than just letting them on street and feeding them.

3:13 PM yes there are monkeys in the defense land.
me: what is the defense land? protected land?
like what you ride through to go to kerala?

3:15 PM akhi.getfriday: what I meant by defence land are property of Indian army and air force.

3:16 PM me: oh cool
why are there monkeys there?
akhi.getfriday: its a safe place for them, lot of trees and no one will disturb them.

3:19 PM me: thats so awesome
because the public cannot access this land?
3:20 PM akhi.getfriday: yes, most of the trees in bangalore are in these defense land.

3:22 PM me: have you been to this land because f your dad's involvement?

akhi.getfriday: yes
one of his office was at a place like tropical forest in the heart of bangalore.
if you get inside you cannot say you are in bangalore.

3:25 PM me: oh in case people are listening to what is being said inside?
akhi.getfriday: inside ?

me: inside the office. why could he not say bangalore inside?

3:28 PM akhi.getfriday: still didnt get you.

3:29 PM me: im just not sure what you meant by "if you get inside you cannot say you are in bangalore."

3:30 PM akhi.getfriday: oh sorry, I meant if you get inside that office property (defence land) you will not see the traffic, noise of Bangalore.

me: ohhh ok

3:31 PM could you show me where it is on a google map?

akhi.getfriday: let me try.

3:36 PM how do i send you the link ?

3:38 PM me: in the top right corner of google maps, there is a "link" button that should do it if you copy it

3:45 PM why do you think they keep so much greenery around for these areas?
